

Children speaking out

Children have the right to express their views in all matters concerning the child (CRC, art. 12)
FFP facilitates in various ways for children with imprisoned parents to have their say

Hearing at FFP - children giving their opinion on a law proposal

Preparing for children's hearing with a representative from the Committee on the Rights of the Child

Shooting a film on FFP and children with imprisoned parents

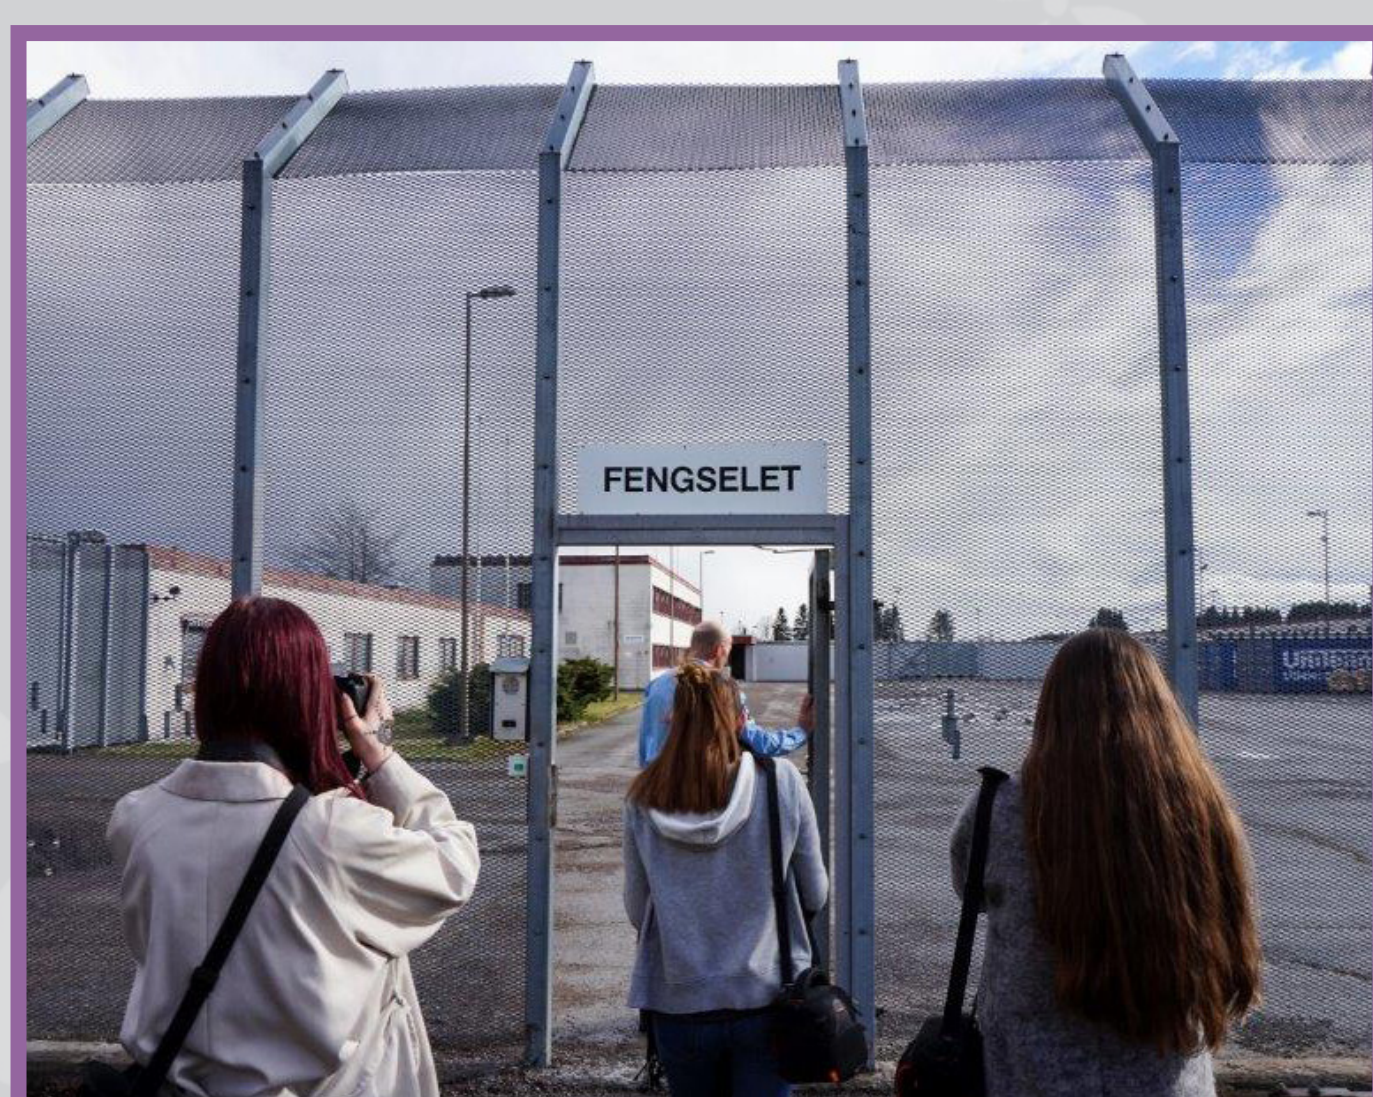

Young people from FFP Youth sharing experiences and views at a conference

Creating a safe atmosphere for children is essential

Children sharing their views with the Children's Ombudsman, a Prison Governor and the Minister of Justice

Girls from FFP's youth group visiting a high security prison with cameras

From FFP's photo project: Behind the Wall - through the eyes of children of prisoners

Interview with NRK, the Norwegian Broadcasting Company (Daily News for children)

To know what is in children's best interest, we must listen to what they say!